2019 PERFORMING ARTS, MUSIC TALKS, YOGAFORT TEACHERS

BOISE, IDAHO – Treefort Music Fest has released more details about the upcoming festival, happening March 20-24 in downtown Boise. The announcement includes the incredible lineup of performing arts, topics and speakers coming to Music Talks at Treefort, the full lineup of Yogafort 2019 teachers, and a call to artists for the fest's annual Treefort Window Walk.

Performing Arts at Treefort 2019

Treefort will welcome a handful of ubertalented artists to perform as part of the festival's Performing Arts component. Artists include Los Angeles-based dance duo WHYTEBERG and Brooklyn-based choreographer and performer Brendan Duggan, as well as a handful of local dancers, dance companies, theatre companies, and even puppeteers. Performing Arts during Treefort 2019 take place March 20-24 at Boise Contemporary Theater and at multiple pop-up events throughout the festival. See the full list of artists and events at www.treefortmusicfest.com/performing-arts-2019.

Music Talks at Treefort 2019

Music Talks will return to Treefort 2019, featuring music industry-focused panels that bring some of the brightest minds together to discuss the future of the music industry and how artists can better navigate the changing environment. Topics include management, publicity, booking, distribution, licensing, royalties and advocacy. Music Talks take place every day during the fest, March 20-24, at Trailhead (500 S 8th Street) in downtown Boise. More details on panels can be found at www.treefortmusicfest.com/music-talks-2019.

Yogafort 2019 Teachers

Yogafort, the three-day yoga, movement and music experience within Treefort Music Fest, has announced the lineup teachers that will be guiding mindful meditations and aligning asanas during the 2019 festival. Included in the latest announcement is Marisa Weppner, Denise Druce, Celeste Bolin, CJ Thomas, Mikayla Latta, Jennifer Knight, and many more.
