Vince Staples, set to perform Wednesday, March 20 at The Knitting Factory, is expected to be a highly anticipated show. The Knitting Factory will have 400 individual show tickets for sale and will guarantee entry to ticket holders. There will be 600 spots for festival wristband holders. Those who want to guarantee a spot at the show should buy an individual ticket in addition to their festival wristband or purchase a festival ZIPLINE pass. Even with a five-day ZIPLINE or festival wristband, attendees will want to show up early, as entry to the show is on first come, first served basis.

Individual show tickets will be sold through the Knitting Factory and are priced as follows:

- $30 general admission (316 tickets available)
- $75 skybox reserved balcony seating (84 tickets available)

Festival passes are on sale now and can be purchased at treefortmusicfest.com/tickets. The best way to experience the most of the fest is to buy a ZIPLINE pass, which grants access to the front of the line for all Treefort shows and events.

2019 submissions for several forts are open now and closing soon. Guidelines, instructions and entry forms can be found at treefortmusicfest.com/get-involved/submissions. Volunteer applications are open now and can be found at treefortmusicfest.com/volunteer. Press applications are open as well and can be found at treefortmusicfest.com/press.

About Treefort Music Fest

Conceived as an extension of the current momentum in the Boise music scene and art scene at large, our vision is that Treefort will provide the opportunity for Boise to play host to the national and regional music scenes while showcasing the local up-and-coming talent. Treefort Music Fest was proudly recognized as the Cultural Ambassador for the City of Boise 2015-2017.
